

Information for HMP Cornton Vale

What is Shine?

Shine is a voluntary intensive mentoring service for women, providing both practical and emotional support.

Who is eligible?

All adult females in SPS custody who are:

- ✓ Serving a sentence of less than four years and not subject to a statutory order.
- ✓ On remand.

What is on offer?

Mentors will provide each individual with one-to-one intensive support which starts with contact in the prison and continues through the gate and in to the community.

Mentors aim to meet a wide range of needs as identified by the individual in order to help bring about positive change.

Referral Information

Shine Mentor Samantha Fullerton will visit Cornton Vale twice a week to take referrals.

Staff can give names to her in person or by email.

Email samantha.fullerton@sps.pnn.gov.uk

Shine Mentor Iain Muldoon will visit Cornton Vale every week to take referrals.

Staff can give names to him in person or by email.

Email iain.muldoon@sps.pnn.gov.uk

Shine Women's Mentoring Service is delivered across Scotland by:

In association with the Scottish Prison Service, Association of Directors of Social Work and Scotland's Community Justice Authorities. Shine is funded by the Scottish Government, Scottish Prison Service and The Robertson Trust.

Information for HMP Greenock

What is Shine?

Shine is a voluntary intensive mentoring service for women, providing both practical and emotional support.

Who is eligible?

All adult females in SPS custody who are:

- ✓ Serving a sentence of less than four years and not subject to a statutory order.
- ✓ On remand.

What is on offer?

Mentors will provide each individual with one-to-one intensive support which starts with contact in the prison and continues through the gate and in to the community.

Mentors aim to meet a wide range of needs as identified by the individual in order to help bring about positive change.

Referral Information

Shine Mentor Louise Dickinson will visit HMP Greenock every week.

Staff can give names to her in person or by email.

Email louise.dickinson@sps.pnn.gov.uk

Shine Women's Mentoring Service is delivered across Scotland by:

In association with the Scottish Prison Service, Association of Directors of Social Work and Scotland's Community Justice Authorities. Shine is funded by the Scottish Government, Scottish Prison Service and The Robertson Trust.

Information for HMP Edinburgh

What is Shine?

Shine is a voluntary intensive mentoring service for women, providing both practical and emotional support.

Who is eligible?

All adult females in SPS custody who are:

- ✓ Serving a sentence of less than four years and not subject to a statutory order.
- ✓ On remand.

What is on offer?

Mentors will provide each individual with one-to-one intensive support which starts with contact in the prison and continues through the gate and in to the community.

Mentors aim to meet a wide range of needs as identified by the individual in order to help bring about positive change.

Referral Information

Shine Mentor Jennifer Melville will visit Ratho Hall twice a week to take referrals.

Staff can give names to her in person or by email.

Email Jennifer.Melville2@sps.pnn.gov.uk

Shine Women's Mentoring Service is delivered across Scotland by:

In association with the Scottish Prison Service, Association of Directors of Social Work and Scotland's Community Justice Authorities. Shine is funded by the Scottish Government, Scottish Prison Service and The Robertson Trust.